

NAIS Student Diversity Leadership Conference

Hi Upper Schoolers,

We are looking for 6 awesome 10th-12th Graders to represent Park at the NAIS Student Diversity Leadership Conference (SDLC). As past participants have expressed, SDLC is a transformative experience where lasting relationships and worldviews are shaped and forged. Each year student participants bring their experience back to the Park School and create student-led events that support our diversity, equity, & inclusion efforts. Check out the info below and APPLY BY SEPT 1ST, 2023. SELECTIONS WILL BE ANNOUNCED ON SEPT 4th, 2023!

NAIS Student Diversity Leadership Conference, November 29 - December 2, 2023: The NAIS SDLC is a multiracial, multicultural gathering of upper school student leaders (grades 10 - 12) from across the nation. Led by a diverse team of trained adult and peer facilitators, participants will develop effective cross-cultural communication skills, better understand the nature and development of effective strategies for social justice, practice expression through the arts, and learn networking principles and strategies.

To apply complete the following steps by SEPTEMBER 1, 2023:

1. Complete Park SDLC 2023 Google Form Application
2. Complete SDLC Student/Family Agreement
3. Complete Student Form (note: Akira Townes as chaperone)

For more info contact Akira Townes atownes@parkschool.net or Elliott Huntsman ehuntsman@parkschool.net

*Please note that SDLC typically falls on the weekend of SAT and ACT testing. If you are applying and/or selected, please plan accordingly.
