Sending IRS Data to your Application

New! Send your tax data directly from the IRS to your SSS financial aid application with TaxStatus

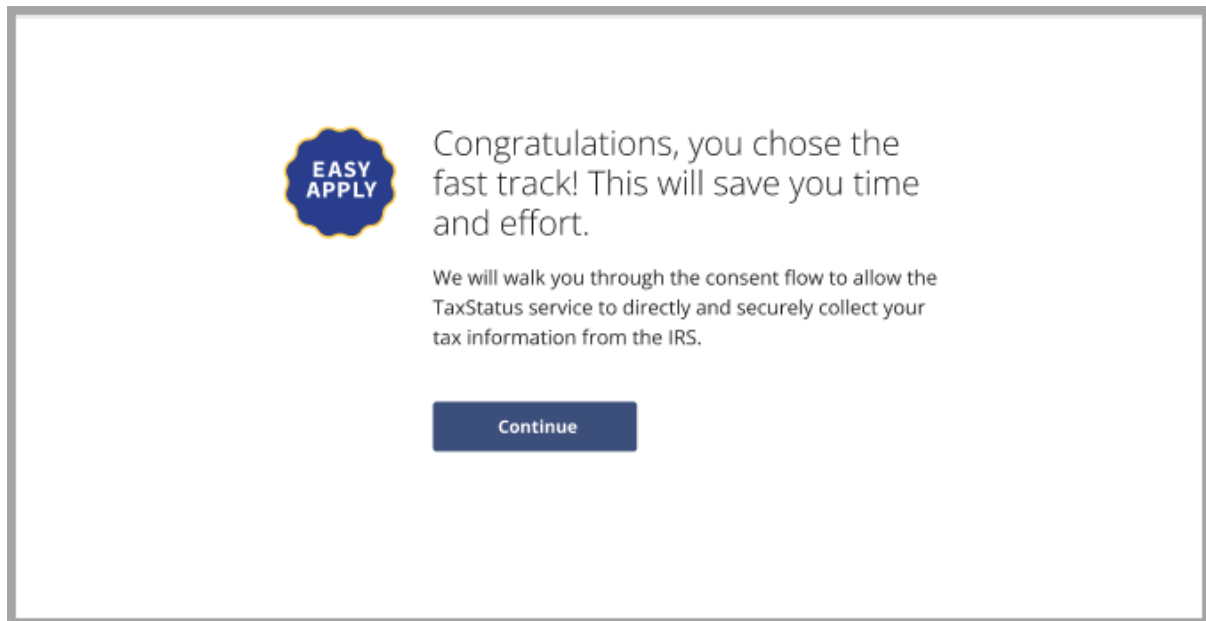

With SSS and TaxStatus, you can now provide consent for your IRS tax data to be directly sent to your financial aid application, eliminating the need to manually upload your tax documents like 1040s and W-2s.

How do I do it? The process is simple and fast! Follow the steps below to provide your consent for your tax data to be shared. You will also receive step-by-step instructions in SSS as you go.

1. As you complete your application, you will see a new step to share your tax information from the IRS, rather than manually uploading your documents. Simply click Get started to provide your consent for your data to be shared.

2. You will enter the consent workflow. Simply click Continue to get started with the first step: identity validation.

3. You have two options to validate your identity before submitting your consent:
 1. Using your ID.me account is recommended for the quickest process. This is the same account you use to view your data on the IRS website
 2. You also have the option to complete a manual identity verification process that will compare a photo of your legal identifying document (such as a driver's license) with a 180-degree selfie.

Your selected school(s) require you to submit tax information. The TaxStatus service will save you hours of time and effort by automatically, privately, and securely collecting your tax information from the IRS.

To complete your request, we need your consent.

To complete your request, we need to verify your financial information with the IRS. Please complete the electronic consent here.

Manually Verifying Identity:

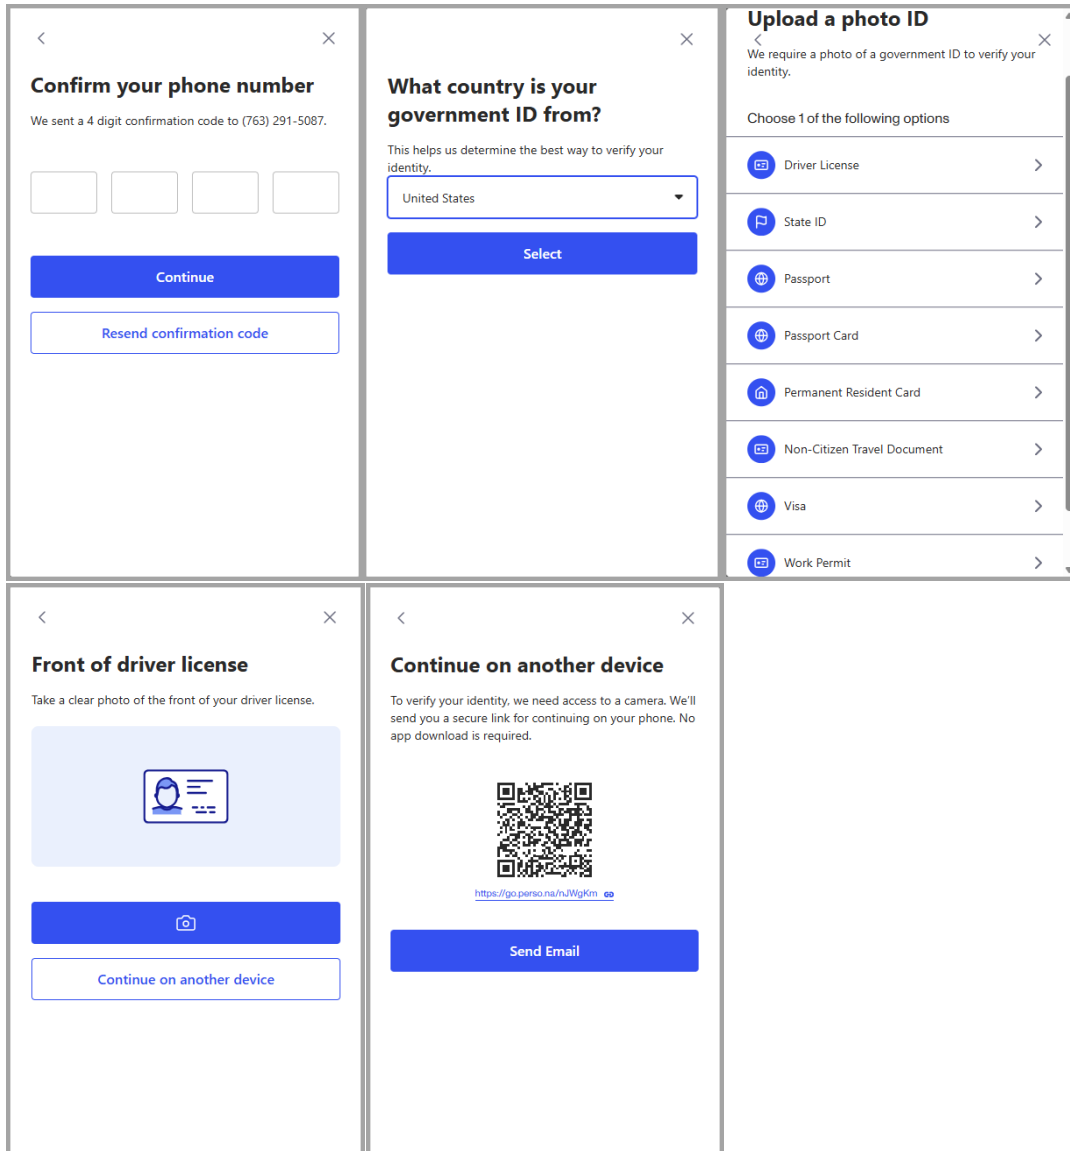

1. Most of your information will be pre-loaded from your Financial Aid application; however, you will need to enter your social security number for the IRS to process your consent form. (SSS will never store your social security number).
 - a. Ensure that your address listed matches the address where you last filed your federal taxes (1040).

The screenshot shows a web form titled "Just the basics" with a close button (X) in the top right corner. Below the title is the instruction: "Nothing fancy, just a few things to verify your identity." The form contains the following fields:

- First name: A text input field.
- Last name: A text input field.
- Birthdate: Three input fields labeled "Month", "Day", and "Year". The "Month" field has a dropdown arrow.
- SSN: A text input field with a masked format "....." and a small icon on the right.
- Address: Three stacked text input fields. The middle field is labeled "Apt / Suite".

2. After confirming your phone number, select which government ID you would like to use to verify your identity and take a photo, followed by a 180-degree selfie. (This step is guided with easy-to-follow, on-screen instructions.) If your computer does not have a camera, or if you prefer, you may use your phone or tablet by simply scanning the QR code. You can also email yourself the link to continue your identity verification.

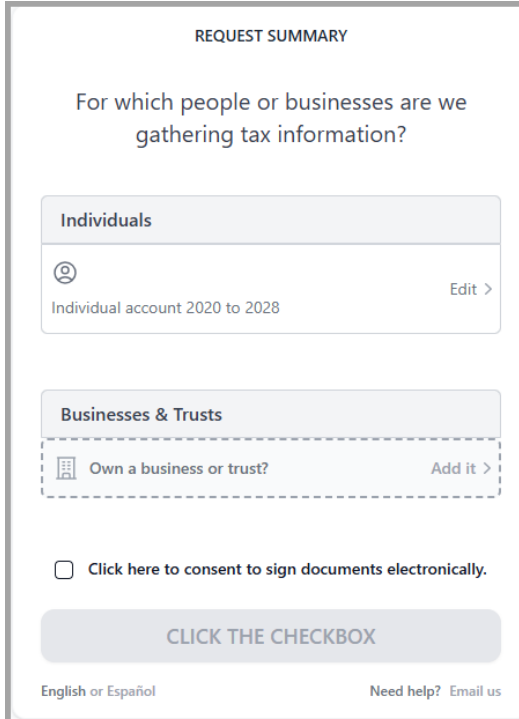

The collage displays five screens from the identity verification app:

- Confirm your phone number: Shows a 4-digit confirmation code input field (with the example code 763) 291-5087) and buttons for "Continue" and "Resend confirmation code".
- What country is your government ID from?: Features a dropdown menu with "United States" selected and a "Select" button.
- Upload a photo ID: Lists various government ID options: Driver License, State ID, Passport, Passport Card, Permanent Resident Card, Non-Citizen Travel Document, Visa, and Work Permit. Each option has a right-pointing arrow.
- Front of driver license: Instructs the user to "Take a clear photo of the front of your driver license." and includes a camera icon and a "Continue on another device" button.
- Continue on another device: Provides a QR code and a URL (<https://go.perso.na/hJWgKm>) for users to scan or use on another device, with a "Send Email" button.

Business Consent (If Applicable):

If you own one or more business, you will also need to consent to sharing that business' tax information.

- Under Business & Trusts, click Add it to add each business (if not already listed). Otherwise, click Edit to provide business details

Sign and Submit Consent

After verifying your identity and any businesses (if applicable,) follow the on-screen prompts to sign and submit your consent form.

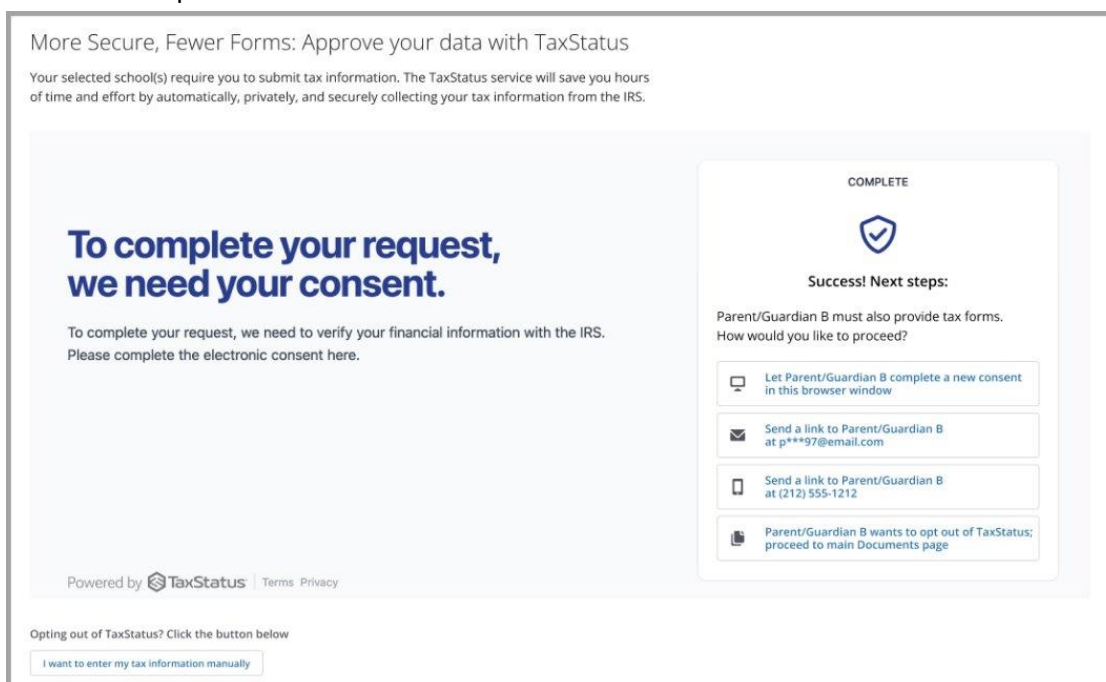

[illegible]

After Submitting your Consent:

1. If you are the only Parent or Guardian in the household, you will see the options to either navigate to your Dashboard or to your My Documents page.

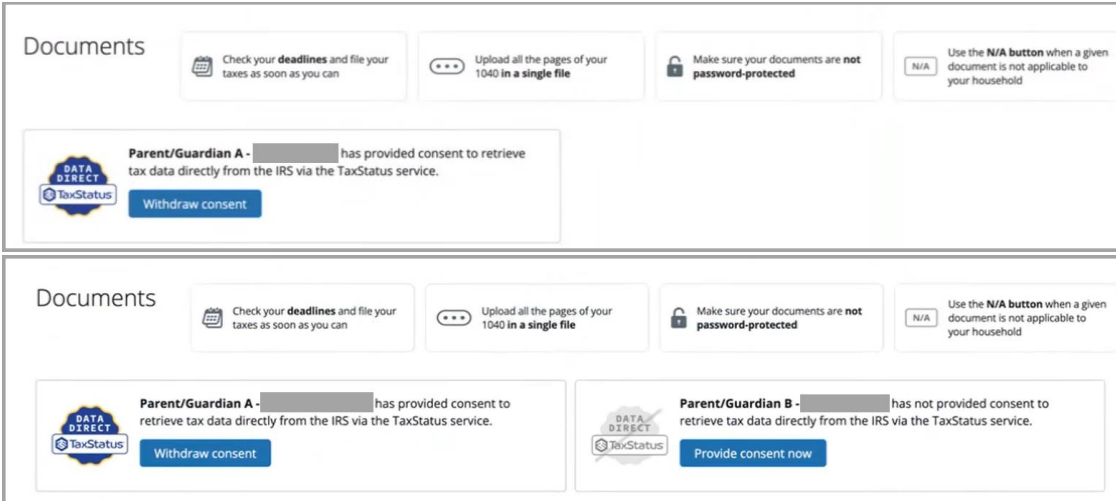

2. If there is a second Parent or Guardian in your household, they will also need to submit their consent form. This is because each individual taxpayer owns their tax data, and only they can provide consent to access that data. Parent or Guardian B can complete consent during your current session, or you may email or text them a link to complete their consent form later.

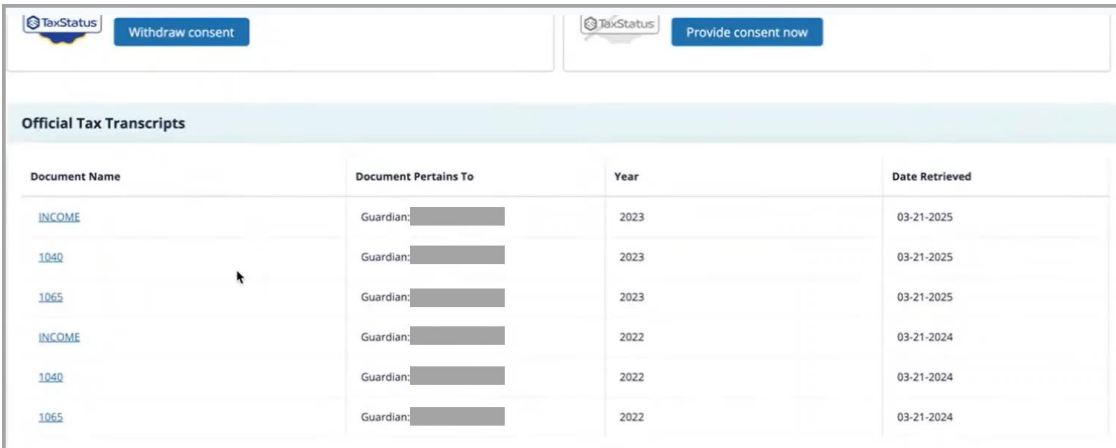

Viewing IRS Consent Status and Transcripts:

- From your My Documents page, you will be able to verify which Parent(s) or Guardian(s) have completed their consent form, granting easy access to IRS-direct data and documents. You can also add or withdraw consent from this page via the buttons on screen.

The screenshot shows the 'Documents' page with instructions at the top: 'Check your deadlines and file your taxes as soon as you can', 'Upload all the pages of your 1040 in a single file', 'Make sure your documents are not password-protected', and 'Use the N/A button when a given document is not applicable to your household'. Below, there are two sections for Parent/Guardian A and Parent/Guardian B. Parent/Guardian A has provided consent and has a 'Withdraw consent' button. Parent/Guardian B has not provided consent and has a 'Provide consent now' button.

- You may also view any of your tax transcripts that have been retrieved from the IRS as soon as they are available in the Official Tax Transcripts section.

The screenshot shows the 'Official Tax Transcripts' section with a table of retrieved transcripts. The table has four columns: Document Name, Document Pertains To, Year, and Date Retrieved. The table lists transcripts for INCOME, 1040, and 1065 for the years 2023 and 2022, all retrieved on 03-21-2025.

Document Name	Document Pertains To	Year	Date Retrieved
INCOME	Guardian: [REDACTED]	2023	03-21-2025
1040	Guardian: [REDACTED]	2023	03-21-2025
1065	Guardian: [REDACTED]	2023	03-21-2025
INCOME	Guardian: [REDACTED]	2022	03-21-2024
1040	Guardian: [REDACTED]	2022	03-21-2024
1065	Guardian: [REDACTED]	2022	03-21-2024

What if I have already manually uploaded all of my tax documents for my current Financial Aid application? No problem! Because your TaxStatus consent is good for three years, you can take the time now to get ahead for next year. And, because your updated tax data will be available when it's time to apply for Financial Aid again, you won't need to spend time searching for it – it's all right there for you.

To provide your TaxStatus consent in this case, simply log in, navigate to My Documents, and click the Provide consent now button to follow the normal process (detailed above).

What if I do not wish to provide consent for SSS to securely retrieve your official tax transcripts directly from the IRS? We understand, and while it's not the recommended method, you are able to opt out of providing consent by clicking I would rather enter my tax data manually.
